

Reservation system provider enters

March, 2008

Finland based time reservation system provider for golf clubs has entered to Thailand. With the solution a reservation to the golf course can be made anywhere, anytime.

The company has entered to an agreement with a local integration and distribution partner. The companies are jointly developing the market. The pilot project launch and related press release is scheduled for 2008.

For more information, kindly contact info@trfinn.com.